Welcome Message

Comilla University : A Beacon of Learning and Innovation

Established in 2006, Comilla University has rapidly evolved into a leading institution in Bangladesh, renowned for its commitment to academic excellence and research. It offers diverse programs across six faculties, including Science, Engineering, Business Administration, Arts and Humanities, Social Sciences, and Laws, all focused on a modern, interdisciplinary curriculum. The university's current dynamism is reflected in its strong research culture. Faculty and students actively pursue innovative projects in key areas like environmental science, nanotechnology, drug discovery and data science. This is supported by continuous infrastructure development, with new laboratories and learning facilities designed to foster cutting-edge discovery. Recently, it initiates PhD with scholarship for the advancement of cutting-edge research throughout the region. As a testament to its commitment to advancing knowledge, Comilla University is proud to host the 1st International Conference on Multidisciplinary Research in Sciences (ICMRS-2026). This event underscores its role as a vibrant platform for global scholarly exchange and collaboration, welcoming delegates to its growing campus.

Scopes

- Applied Mathematics
- Data Science and Machine Learning
- Mathematical Biology
- Computational Mathematics
- Fuzzy Mathematics
- Pure Mathematics
- Operations Research
- Numerical Mathematics
- Nonlinear Dynamics
- Statistical Theory and Methodology
- Public Health
- Artificial Intelligence
- Environmental and Climate Statistics
- Biostatistics and Epidemiology
- Applied Statistics in Science and Social Science
- Material Science and Nanotechnology
- Nuclear and Medical Physics
- Theoretical Physics
- Multiferroics and Functional Materials
- Renewable and Sustainable Energy
- Environmental Chemistry
- Green Chemistry
- Organometallics and Catalysis
- Drug Discovery and Development
- Pharmacology and Toxicology
- Pharmaceutical Biotechnology
- Pharmaceutics and Drug Delivery Systems
- Pharmacognosy and Phytochemistry

About ICMRS

The 1st International Conference on Multidisciplinary Research in Sciences (ICMRS) at Comilla University aims to bring together researchers, academics, and students from diverse scientific fields to share innovative ideas and recent findings. It promotes collaboration across disciplines such as physics, chemistry, pharmacy, mathematics, and statistics. The conference provides a platform for presenting research papers, exchanging knowledge, and fostering partnerships for sustainable scientific development. Organized by Comilla University, this event highlights the institution's growing commitment to advancing multidisciplinary research and contributing to global scientific progress.

Faculty of Science, Comilla University

The Faculty of Science, a cornerstone of Comilla University, is situated in a tranquil, natural campus and is committed to the highest standards of scientific education and research. It is home to a wide variety of contemporary departments, such as Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry, Pharmacy, and statistics. The faculty provides a wide range of undergraduate and postgraduate programs that promote a profound comprehension of both fundamental and applied sciences. A team of highly qualified academic staff and well-equipped laboratories support a strong emphasis on hands-on learning and innovation. This environment fosters the participation of both students and faculty in meaningful research, which addresses current issues and contributes to the global scientific community. The Faculty of Science at Comilla University is a critical institution for the development of scientific talent and the advancement of technology in Bangladesh, dedicated to the production of competent graduates and future leaders.

General Guidelines:

The title shall be centered with Times New Roman 14 pt, bold face, in capital letters. The name of the authors shall be in sentence case, Times New Roman 10pt with just initials and last name of each author, separated by commas. The affiliation of all authors shall be in sentence case, Times New Roman, 9pt italics. Please DO NOT use any salutation (e.g. Professor, Dr., Mr., Ms. etc.) with the authors' names.

The corresponding/presenting author should be denoted by an asterisk (*) and should be placed after the author(s) affiliation/address with a space of 6-point before it. The affiliation/ address of the authors should follow the author list after a single line space.

Title

The title of the paper should be concise and catchy to attract the readers' attention. The title must reflect the works being presented in the manuscript.

Abstract

The abstract describing key features of the papers with methods obtained and the key results obtained, and the implications of the present study. The abstract should be limited to a maximum of 500 words including spaces and punctuation. The abstract should not contain any undefined abbreviations or unspecified references. The abstract and the keywords must be fully contained in the first page with title and authors name and affiliation.

Keywords

Provide 5 keywords separated by semicolon. The keywords must be relevant to the works presented and thus may help to search papers online with wider visibility.
